VIGNETTE

A Publication by the Class of June 1935

ART HIGH SCHOOL
NEWARK, N. J.

DEDICATION

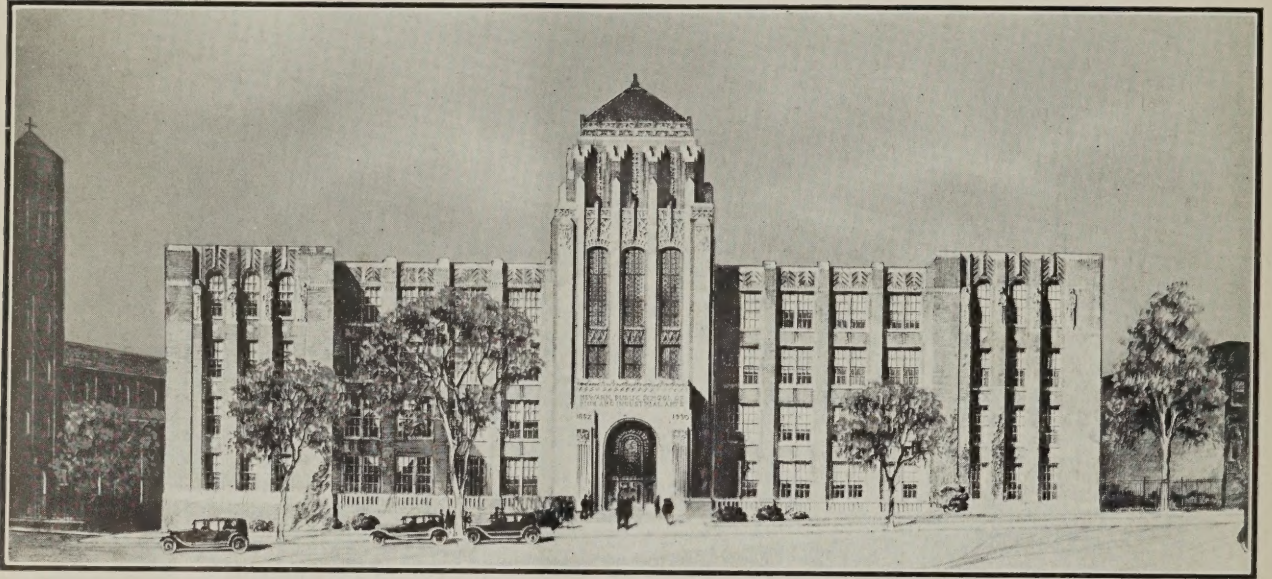

MR. D. HOMER RICH
Instructor in Dramatics and English

We dedicate this June 1935 issue of the Vignette to Mr. D. Homer Rich in appreciation of his untiring effort to develop in our school a Dramatics Department second to none in the Newark School System.

ARTS H. S. LIBRARY
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

FOREWORD

"Vignette" was chosen as the name of the Senior Class Semi-annual by the class of February, 1935. Its significance for such title is that the book presents to the view a sketch of the many and varied activities of the school, and especially those of the graduating class. We hope that all of our readers may gain such an impression—and more, that they may realize something of what the school, its practices, its hopes, its ideals, its dreams, have meant to us.

TO THE GRADUATES:

Yours is the largest class yet graduated from the school, and it is with great satisfaction that we in authority recognize the superior attainment of many of your number in the fields of art, music, and academic pursuits. The keynote of our curriculum has been to preserve a proper balance in education as between the various aspects of human self-activity. Nothing is surer than that in your future progress, whether in institutions of higher education or in the practical walks of life, you will exemplify this ideal.

Congratulations on successful achievement and best wishes to one and all for future success.

HARRISON E. WEBB

JONES, ROBERT

"Bobby"

"Ambition—to see America first"

Attended 3 grammar schools and one high school before coming here. Always loved to read—good things. Blindness came as a result. Played cowboys and Indians, marbles, and went to movies when young. Twice entered track meets, first time was 5th in finals; second time got as far as first trial. Never joined any clubs. Never did anything interesting. Can't dance in spite of Mr. Criswell. Extremely lazy. Love to do things at last minute.

Signed and registered,

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

It has been rumored about that the senior class is dead, or at least from the neck up. Of course we deny this absolutely, but it has set us thinking seriously on the subject.

So, just in case some freshie tosses a bomb at us, we have made our Last Will and Testament.

Whereas, we, the senior class of the Fine Arts High School, being sound of body, and sound (?) of mind, do hereby give and bequeath the following legacies to the following persons:

To the freshies—Elevator tickets, sophomores, a road map of the school's corridors, and permission to use any locker in the school.

To the sophs—That superior feeling that comes from watching a freshie hunt all over the first floor for room 413.

To the juniors—Boswell, Macbeth, and Chaucer (heh, heh, heh).

To the seniors—Our self-satisfaction, our importance, and our wisdom, class dues, money for rings, pins, pictures, gowns, etc., term papers, anthologies, red tape, and a new bound edition of that entrancing, stirring, didactic, compressed, pedagogical volume (Mussey).

To Mr. Rich—The 5-point rule.

To Miss Eddy—Notes, questions, a roomful of "Musseys", and a stack of unused test papers, all of which have Incomplete stamped in red on the margins.

To Miss Kruck—A memorizing machine to remember every comma of the Constitution, problems of democracy, and an eternal reign of taciturnity.

To Miss Brooker—The inevitable speeches every Friday.

To Mr. Criswell—A stop watch for timing short speeches.

To Mrs. Cross—Some contortionists that can do the "Highland Fling" or "Russian Kazatska."

To Mr. Webb—Morning assemblies.

To Miss Lobel—More late slips.

To "Joe", the janitor—More rooms to sweep if school is enlarged.

To the student body—The pernicious Crystal Gazer, six periods a day, a real gymnasium, a football team, an honor society, school spirit, the memory of our astounding achievements, and loads of homework.

To the glowing history of the Fine Arts High School we bequeath our illustrious deeds and our names as potential candidates for the Hall of Fame.

In witness whereof, we, the class of June in the year of 1935, have set our hand and seal on this 25th day of June, 1935.

Witnesses: Jack McGrath, Alex Chiger, John Bollash, Charles Baretski.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF

The Hanke twins came to school with differently colored socks?
Naomi Sobel did an Irish jig?
Henry Grentus kept out of mischief?
Audrey Trigler failed to recite Mr. Muzzey word for word?
Angelo Piegari scraped some of the mud off his Ford?
Shirlie Newman stopped biting her nails?
Raymond Iannuzzi could really croon?
William Winter wasn't trying to sell rings?
Anthony Zuccarello shaved off his moustache?
Wilbur Willms brought a small lunch to school?
John Bollash stopped popping up with wise-cracks?
Harvey Botkin came to school on time?
Antoinette Cataldo didn't dance so much?
Geraldine DeVita was separated from the other five?
Charles Reed was eligible to run for the school?
James Hegen did not blush when called upon to recite?
William DeDomenico could really dance?
Alex Chiger wore a man's shirt?
Anthony Meola lost that green felt hat?
Robert Jones came early for once?
Anthony Moschuk became friendly with the girls?
Ruth Renga wasn't so rough?
Howard Gutman was quiet during a class period?
James Wooten did not wear taps on his shoes?
Rita Hansen wasn't so good-natured?
Mr. Faber lost his green smock?
Miss Kruck was sent to Congress?
Mr. Rich lost his poise?

PUBLIC ENEMIES

People we could do without

- No. 1 Muzzey.
- No. 2 The fellow who doesn't have the homework, and then discovers he has no pen.
- No. 3 The fellow who always leaves banana skins, lunch boxes, and other paraphernalia on the desk where you have a 5th period class.
- No. 4 The chap who invented recitation slips, library slips, late slips, detention slips, schedule cards, book cards, report cards, green cards, blue cards, and red tape.
- No. 5 The fellow who climbs all over everyone in assembly to get a book from a fellow in the middle of a row, and then climbs back.
- No. 6 The fellow who, at the height of the between-class rush, drops his books in the corridor and scatters notes, books, and papers over a wide area.
- No. 7 The person who indulges in bombastic phraseology and the speaker who delivers interminable addresses.
- No. 8 The person who sells (or tries to sell) raffle tickets and all other kinds.

The Vignette is a semi-annual publication. This issue was sponsored and prepared by the class of June 1935 under the direction of Mr. E. G. Holmberg as faculty advisor. To finance the project funds have been obtained from the proceeds of sales, advertisements, clubs, cuts, and "booster" contributions. The staff of the Vignette expresses its heart-felt gratitude to the student body and faculty for their support and interest in helping to make the Vignette a success and an established tradition

LIBRARY GUILD

First Row Seated—Florence Cohen, Julia Novak, Le Roy Crane, president; Estelle Barback, vice president; Muriel Tuohig; secretary; John Heddes, Treasurer; Barbara Sager, Elynor Robina.

Second Row—Rose Blake, Doris Mooney, Sue Leuzarder, Mary Shooost, Louise Berry, Ethel Radler, Sophie Shalit, Frances Kerr, Hazel Fry, Mary Englehart.

Third Row—Dave Zamchick, Constance Crane, Grace Brinkman, Viola Barnes, Martha Baer, Edith Gustafson, Faculty Advisor; LaVerne Tuohig, Bernice Bingham, Lillian Insdorf, William Blake.

Fourth Row—Jack Dubman, Louis Nagle, Jack Dillon, Max Kutcher, Tom Anest, Fred Forschner, Lester Lieberman, Seymour Sloan.

The Library Guild is one of the most useful organizations of the school. It presents to the interested individual the opportunity of learning how to run a high school library. An excellent training is offered in responsibility, cooperation, accuracy, and neatness. Nowhere is the necessity of cooperation and responsibility so keenly brought out as in the work of a good librarian. The club has the full cooperation of the student body, a splendid librarian as advisor, and one of the best libraries in the city in which to work. Nearly every school has its library guild, and it would be difficult for any school to function properly without the assistance of a library organization. Only a student with the best of references, marks, character, and willingness is eligible to join. The advisor and librarian is Miss Edith Gustafson.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS CLUB

Bottom Row—Jack Dubman, Nettie Geltzeiler, Harry Geiger, Harvey Botkin, Lester Lieberman, Seymour Sloan, George Sharp.

Second Row—Grace Brinkman, Agnes Kehoe, Elsie Zahler, Lenore Cohen, Audrey Trigler, Miss Ruth Eddy, faculty advisor; Olympia Sica, Columbia Russo.

Third Row—Max Kutcher, Henry Glantz, Alex Chiger, Charles Baretzki, Winifred Cole, John Bollash, Louis Tobia and Anthony Moschuk.

The Social Problems Club was organized in the spring of 1934. Its membership is open to all pupils of this school who wish to inform themselves on the important social and economic problems of today. We want to know the facts. We want to understand our world. It is our purpose to keep an open mind on the questions of our public life. Speakers well equipped to deal with their subjects address us from time to time. Our own members conduct debates and hold open forums during our bi-weekly meetings. We hope, through these activities, to become more intelligent members of society in our school and in the great world outside.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Bottom Row—Barbara Agnolia Wheeler, Elsie Zahler, Norman Hartman, treasurer; Joseph Besch, president; Paul Fisovitz, vice president; Louise P. Julian, secretary; David Goldstein, Dorothy Shapiro.

Second Row—Gladys Korn, Mildred Epstein, Agnes Kehoe, Nettie Geltzeiler, Elinor Bross, Mr. D. Homer Rich, faculty advisor; Evelyn Moffet, Gertrude Brodie, Lillian Insdorf, Mildred Steinrich.

Third Row—Jean Hackett, Ann Walsh, Margaret Brownjohn, Jack Dubman, George Fredricks, Roslyn Schless, Martha Baer, Bertha Brand, Elsie Rosenberg.

Fourth Row—Gladys Young, Max Kutcher, Stanley Wyglendowski, Westney Cummings, Grace Saracen, David Zamchick, Joseph Telan, Julius Eckel, Sol Kaplan.

The Dramatic Club was organized in the fall of 1932 to interest pupils of the first and second year in good Theatre and good Moving Pictures. The club now serves as the production unit for all afternoon and evening entertainments, including those sponsored by the junior and senior classes in Dramatics and has had many successes to its credit. In all, nineteen one-act plays have been presented, including seven originals.

PATROL

Second Row—Dennis Birtwhistle, Charles Battiato, LeRoy Lundin, Laverne Tuohig, William Russoniello, Athena Bodogianis, LeRoy Crane, Wm. Thomas, James Wooten.

The student patrol is a part of the general organization of the school and is responsible for the safety and conduct of the students while school is in session. The patrol have the splendid cooperation of Mr. Webb, the faculty and the students in promoting the ideals of conduct which are conducive to good citizenship.

MODERN DANCE GROUP

The Modern Dance Group was organized in 1934 by Mrs. Margaret L. Cross for the purpose of studying the dance as an art form with movement as the medium for the expression of social and emotional forces of modern life.

The Group has presented lecture-demonstrations for Panzer College, The Council of Jewish Women, the Order of Eastern Star, and at two Variety Nights. Requests for demonstrations for next season have been made by various organizations including the Contemporary Club of Newark.

Doris Humphrey, a foremost exponent of modern dance, observed the group and presented scholarships to her understudy group, Ruth Kinney, Bette Fraser, Mildred Rodburg, and Helen Fischler.

VIGNETTE CONTEST WINNER

WHY I BUY THE VIGNETTE

The object in buying the Vignette is to express my appreciation of the fine things the Senior class has done in order to make this school a better institution than they found it. Some sort of acknowledgement is due them I feel, for the things they have done and how else can I show my appreciation than by purchasing the School Year Book. They have set for us of the lower classes a fine example to follow, and I endeavor to show that I approve of their good work by giving them my hearty support. The Vignette affords an opportunity for those who obtain it, to look into the past and see the faces of those who have made our alma mater famous in the fields of art, music, and dramatics. It is with great pleasure, therefore, that I buy the Vignette and bid farewell to my colleagues knowing full well that they will continue their good work when they begin the Battle of Life.

MAX KUTCHER.

ATHLETICS

FORWARD

Amateur Competitive Athletics enjoys the double distinction of promoting the building of and the maintaining of, firm, strong, healthy bodies, and good character.

The desire to be a little better than the other fellow physically, mentally, or morally, to have your school, your city, or your country that way, is a fine commendable trait. However that betterment must come through honest endeavor and real accomplishments.

The wish to excel is the spur to modern progress but it must in everything be accompanied by the same spirit we find in athletics that of being a modest winner and a cheerful loser.

Such, has been the athletic spirit and attitude of Arts High School so that when some of the handicaps under which we have worked for the past few years lighten a little, the future is even brighter than the past.

Only those familiar with the conditions under which the teams have worked are in a position to fully appreciate their very fine showing of the past year.

R. LENOX CRISWELL

TRACK TEAM

Bottom Row—Martin Davis, P. Theophilus, R. Peckt, B. Miller, B. Weisman, I. Woodruff, T. Guerin, S. Smallsky, A. Bialochick, Captain.

Second Row—W. Stiles, T. Manos, T. Shirley, D. Zamchick, V. Rosenbaum, D. Marinella.

OUTDOOR TRACK

We hoped the season this year might show a little better results than seems apparent at this date. Again loss of veterans through graduations and eligibility hurts our chances tremendously. Also the long distance the boys must go to practise delays and impedes the work.

This did not keep us from undertaking a program of five dual meets and three big meets.

So far we have lost the first two dual meets mainly through the inability to cover all events properly.

CROSS COUNTRY

Last Fall for the first time a team was started in this sport. It was composed entirely of new boys and consequently spent most of the season getting in shape. Next season should show results.

INDOOR TRACK

The past was the third season for Indoor Track. The loss of two of our veterans Walter Glenn and Charles Reed was keenly felt.

Also the lack of any place to practice is a severe handicap. In spite of that the new boys improved steadily and the older ones continued to mature.

SWIMMING TEAM

First Row—Sidney Smolsky, Frank Hodiss, Shelton Lustig, captain; Ben Lifschutz, Joe Todress, Sam Hymowitz.

Second Row—Theo. Gulrin, Albert Green, Norman Tokar, Alex Chiger, Aaron Stiller, Alex Guthrie.

Third Row—Mr. B. Criswell, Coach.

Other members not shown in picture are—Ralph Guthreau, Walter Greeley, Fred Brenner, Elinor Kapio, Ernest Teora, Manager; Howard Gutman.

The past might be said to have been the third season for the Arts High School Swimming Teams. Much preparatory work of a very commendable kind was accomplished by the teams of the first two years.

In fact the backbone of this year's team were boys who made their start then.

However it remained for this year's team to be the first to crash thru a successful season in High School competition. By successful I do not mean always winning but at least taking their place among older and bigger High Schools and always giving a good account of themselves in competition. Captain Sheldon Lustig led his team thru a season of thirteen dual meets with five wins and one tie.

Remarkable progress was made by the individual members of the team during the season. This was entirely due to plenty of hard consistent and intelligent practice. They graduated from rookie performance at the start of the season to dangerous competitors at the close. A fine spirit of co-operation and good sportsmanship prevailed always, win, lose, or draw.

Joe Todress is the Captain-elect.

BOXING CLUB

Front Center—Angelo Cartellino.

First Row—Tom Messe, James Fallano, Mr. Faber, Faculty Advisor; James Muro, Billy De Foe, coach.

The Boxing Club had a very successful season during the school year of 1934-35. Not too much credit can be given to Billy De Foe who gave his services free to the club. It is entirely due to his efforts that the standard of boxing was raised to a much higher level than ever before.

During the year two dances were held by the club both of which were a great success. The outstanding activity of the club was the open school boxing tournament. The winners were as follows: Heavyweight, Tom Shirley; middleweight, James Fallano; welterweight, James Muro; lightweight, Paul Cerovola; flyweight, William Ray.
